Buy Alert: 2 Truly World-Changing Stocks to Buy

It's starting to feel like 2001 all over again... The dot-com bubble was bursting, and internet stocks, those with merit and those without, were gutted by indiscriminate selling. The same thing is happening today, only now you have the opportunity to buy the next Amazon and the next Netflix before their historic run. Read More

It's Time to Become Obsessed With the Future

Today is a very special day for me. It's my daughter's first birthday. For me, being a dad is the best thing in the world. It's the greatest responsibility and biggest treat of my life. It's what I live for every single day. She is my purpose. And maybe that's why I'm so obsessed with Read More

It's Time to Buy the Dip in the Next Shopify

Our goal at the Innovation Investor is singular: To find the next big investment opportunities before everyone else. We don't care about stock market volatility. We don't care about interest rates. We don't care about inflation. All of that stuff is near-term noise. We back it out. We look at the fundamentals. And we buy stock in companies that we think are in the early stages of changing the world. Read More

Your Complete Innovative Guide to Earnings Season

About a quarter of S&P 500 companies have reported Q1 numbers, with 77% beating revenue estimates and 84% beating earnings estimates. Our stocks have followed suit, and our portfolio is up nicely over the past month, with one of the major catalysts being a handful of strong earnings reports from our portfolio companies. But... most of our companies actually have yet to report first-quarter numbers... here's what you should expect when they do. Read More
